Good Afternoon Hang!

Wasn't sure how to check-in to Niantic without having received contact information from the team. Everything I received was on the company phone, but I turned it in as I was terminated from my assignment.

I was wondering if there was an IP litigator either the company or Isabel could recommend? She helped a ton with a few journalistic leads and I wasn't sure if any of the materials I have collected from Niantic are NDA protected.

Hope to hear back from you soon!
Luis

Hello Hang,

Was there any way to update the payroll information? My paystub portal tells me that my payroll information is missing and I'm unable to input it from my end.

Is there anything I can do to update it? I haven't been paid.

Luis

It looked like there was an error and a check was sent on Wednesday to the address you provided when onboarding. I sent you an email earlier regarding that

I do not live at that address, as I've been moving hostel to hostel as a homeless student. Is there any way to receive it electronically?

Luis
