Dear Louie,

It looks like you start your first day of work with us soon! We're excited to have you joining us as a partner.

Your first day at Starbucks will start with an important cultural tradition, connecting over a handcrafted beverage, and a discussion hosted by your store manager. This time together will be focused on the heart of what makes Starbucks a special and unique place to work. Specific points in the conversation will include:

- Starbucks History, Mission & Values
- Customer & Community Commitments
- Core and Comprehensive Partner Benefits
- New Hire Kit & Paperwork
- Retail Partner Hub (online tools and resources)
- Role Specific Responsibilities
- Training Plan and Designated Trainer
- Presentation of Your Partner Apron!

Please bring the following with you on your first day as it will be required for your new hire paperwork:

- Emergency Contact Information
- I-9 Form acceptable identification and employment authorization. Please refer to the attached I-9 Form acceptable documents.
- On your first day, you will have an opportunity to opt into Direct Deposit. If you wish to opt-in, please bring the following banking information, which can be found on a voided check from your bank:
  - Routing number
  - Account number
- In support of partner health and safety, we encourage all partners to disclose their vaccine status. If your Starbucks location is subject to a local vaccine mandate, you will be required to disclose your vaccine status and/or provide required documentation on your first day of work.
  - Starbucks is committed to caring for the health and well-being of our partners (employees) and customers as we serve our communities through the lens of Our Mission and Values. Learn how we're navigating through COVID-19 and protecting the health of our partners and customers through our coronavirus response.

Please be sure to review the dress code in preparation for your first day.

We are excited to have you join the team and welcome you as a partner!

Warm regards,
Starbucks Recruiting & Onboarding Team
