Adjustments have been made to several section introductions in the Doctrine and Covenants, as well as two summaries in the Book of Mormon. Most of the adjustments in the Doctrine and Covenants involve clarifications or corrections to dates, locations, and minor factual errors, informed by findings from the Joseph Smith Papers Project.

A summary of the approved adjustments and an explanation of historical adjustments made to the scriptures are available in English on ChurchofJesusChrist.org.

The adjustments are now available in digital scriptures for most languages on ChurchofJesusChrist.org and in the Gospel Library mobile app, with additional languages to follow.

Printed copies will begin reflecting the adjustments in the coming months. Members are not expected to obtain new scriptures as a result of these updates.
