Dear Luis Angel Soberanis-Pacheco,

Enklu, Inc. has issued a form 1099-NEC for you for tax year 2022 using Track1099, an IRS-approved vendor.

You may retrieve your form electronically by clicking on the blue button below. To validate your identity, you'll be asked to enter the last 4 digits of your SSN or EIN. Doing so will give Enklu, Inc. a record of e-delivery, which is required by the IRS.

Retrieve Your 1099-NEC

Or, copy and paste this link into your browser:

<https://www.track1099.com/retrieve/40fff132-e333-4ff3-b0ce-491ca7850d62>

This form may look a little different from the usual form, but is an acceptable substitute according to current specifications.

Your 1099-NEC will remain available via the secure link for 10 months after the date of this email at which time it will become inaccessible. You may then email accounting@enklu.com and request that they resend the link.

In order to access the document, you will need a suitable computer connected to the internet, running an internet browser that supports 256 bit SSL encryption that is able to view HTML pages and download a pdf file.

By clicking on the secure link, you give permission to Enklu, Inc. and Avalara, Inc. to deliver your 1099-NEC electronically for tax year 2022. You may refuse or withdraw your consent by emailing accounting@enklu.com. Please include the name of the company, Enklu, Inc., your name, last 4 digits of your SSN or EIN, your full mailing address and a request for paper. A paper copy will then be mailed to you.

You may update your information by emailing accounting@enklu.com. Please include the company name, Enklu, Inc., your name, and the last 4 digits of your SSN or EIN.

Best regards,

The Team at Track1099 by Avalara
